Story telling

I can tell my story to an adult
I can enjoy watching the adult write my story down
I can choose who I want to be in my story.
I can bring my story to life with my friends.
I can draw a picture of my story.

Write Dance

I can lie on my tummy and respond to music by making different marks.

People Who Help Us

Expressive Arts and Design Focus

Whole School Arts week; representing their own ideas through the arts

Physical Development

Write Dance (strengthening core, bilateral coordination, crossing the mid line)

Key skills:

I am growing in confidence with my scissor skills
I can tear and scrunch paper into small balls
I am strengthening my fine motor skills by opening the putty tub by myself and playing with it in different ways.
I am spending some of my choosing time doing things which make my heart race fast

Personal Social and Emotional Development

I am more confident in remembering my words to take turns and share in my play
I am beginning to notice when my friends are in need and can try to help them
I am beginning to register my name on a paper list to wait longer periods of time for my turn with the crane.

Communication and Language

I can use a full sentence to make a request for my pudding at lunchtime
I can confidently use a full sentence to ask my group which drink they would like
I am building up vocabulary that reflects the breadth of my experiences

Characteristics of effective learning.

I can... find out and explore; play with what I know; be willing to have a go; be involved and concentrate; keep on trying; enjoy achieving what I set out to do; have my own ideas; make links; choose ways to do things
