

Key Vocabulary
 hemisphere we split the world into two half spheres.
 sea a large area of salt water, smaller than an ocean.
 ocean a huge area of salt water containing many seas.
 country an area which has its own government. Around the edge of this area is what we call the border.
 continent enormous area of land. Can contain many countries. There are seven of these in the world.
 equator an imaginary line around the world which is the same distance from the North and South poles. Divides the world into two hemispheres.

Key Facts
 The capital city of Greece is Athens.
 Greece is in the continent of Europe.
 Greece is located in an area known as the Mediterranean.

Civilisation

Geography Y4: Ancient Greece

Key Questions

- Where is Greece in the world?
- What is like in different parts of Greece?
- What countries and seas surround Greece?
- What were the key cities and regions of Ancient Greece?

Links to other subjects:

- History – Ancient Greece
- D & T – moving mechanisms
- English – Greek myths and Aesop's fables
- Dance – Greek myths and legends

Links to other learning:
 Year 3: Romans