

Music Assembly at Home

listening	A Time of Wonder by Alexis Ffrench https://www.youtube.com./watch?v=Pw5vq79_aNQ	Musical fact: This piece is from Ffrench's album 'The Piano Whisperer'. Listening activity: close your eyes as you listen – what do you imagine?
singing	Three Little Birds – this version by 'Sing Up' has sign language too. https://www.singup.org/home-schooling/sign-language-and-makaton-videos	Musical fact: this song is by Bob Marley and the Wailers.

If you are learning to play an instrument/singing, try to practice for 10 minutes a day.

Here are your instructions for Music

For these tasks you will need:

1. Internet access to watch and sing along.

Music assembly at home

Listen to the music in the table above and sing the song.

Chrome Music Lab

Explore the different areas on chrome music lab. You can even make up a song using 'song maker', save it and post it onto the music channel in teams to share with your class.

Here is the link you need for chrome music lab:

<https://musiclab.chromeexperiments.com/>

David Walliams podcast

These podcasts are all about music and they are funny too! Choose one of these to listen to:

Episode 9: Weird Instruments

Episode 10: John Williams and the Chamber of Star Wars

Here is the link you need to listen, scroll down the page to find the podcast.

<http://marvellousmusicalpodcast.com/>

Enjoy!