

Privacy (Fair Processing) Notice

How we use school workforce information

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school .

Barnes Primary School is the 'Data Controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

As a public body as we have appointed Grow Education Partners Ltd as our Data Protection Officer (DPO). The responsible contact is David Coy (see 'Contact us' below).

1. The personal data we hold

Personal data that we may collect, use, store, and share (when appropriate) about those we employ or otherwise engage to work at our school includes, but is not restricted to:

- Personal information (such as name, date of birth, national insurance number, next of kin, dependents, marital status)

- Equalities monitoring and reporting
- Responding to any school workforce issues
- Improving the management of workforce data across the sector
- Supporting the work of the School Teachers' Review Body
- Assessing the quality of our services
- Complying with the law regarding data sharing.

3. Our lawful basis for using this data

These are defined under data protection legislation and for personally identifiable information are:

- To fulfil a contract with you
- You have given consent for one or more specific purposes
- Processing is necessary to comply with the school's legal obligations
- Processing is necessary to protect your vital interests
- Processing is necessary for tasks in the public interest or exercise of authority vested in the controller (the provision of education)
- Processing is necessary for the school's legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party.

When we process special category information, which is deemed to be more sensitive, the following lawful basis are used:

- You have given explicit consent
- Employment, social security and social protection
- It is necessary to fulfil the school's obligations or your obligations
- It is necessary to protect your vital interests
- Processing is carried out by a foundation or not-for-profit organisation (includes religious, political or philosophical organisations and trade unions)
- Reasons of public interest in the area of public health.

Where we have obtained consent to use personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

4. Collecting this information

While the majority of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

5. Storing your data

We collect, store and process data for each member of the school workforce. The information is contained in a virtual and/or physical file which is kept secure and only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment.

Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our Data Retention Statement, a copy of which can be requested from the school's Data Protection Lead.

6. Who we share information with

In order for us to legally, effectively and efficiently function we are required to share data with appropriate third parties, including but not limited to:

- Our Local Authority (LA) – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns and information about Headteacher performance and staff dismissals
- The Department for Education (DfE) - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information.
- Educators and examining bodies - such as ensuring we adhere to examining regulations to guarantee the validity of examinations

- Trade Unions and Professional Associations - to enable them to provide the service their members require
- Charities and voluntary organisations
- Police forces, courts, tribunals, security organisations - to create a secure workplace for all staff

- Professional bodies
- Employment & recruitment agencies and future employers - to support reference requests.

7. Transferring data internationally

We may send your information to other countries where:

- we or a company we work with store information on computer servers based overseas; or
- we communicate with you when you are overseas.

We conduct due diligence on the companies we share data with and note whether they process data in the UK, EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland) or outside of the EEA.

The UK and countries in the EEA are obliged to adhere to the requirements of the GDPR and have equivalent legislation which confer the same level of protection to your personal data.

For organisations who process data outside the UK and EEA we will assess the circumstances of how this occurs and ensure there is no undue risk.

Additionally, we will assess if there are adequate legal provisions in place to transfer data outside of the UK.

8. Why we share your information

In order to successfully perform our key functions, we need to share personal data with organisations. For example, we are required to share information about our workforce members with our LA under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

We share personal data with the DfE on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links to school funding / expenditure and the assessment educational attainment. We are required to share information about our school employees with our LA and the DfE under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Data collection requirements:

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and LAs that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005.

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the DfE (for example, via the school census) including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The DfE may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance.

For more information about the DfE's data sharing process, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

To contact the DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>

9. Data Protection Rights

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- NOT provide information where it compromises the privacy of others
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

In most cases, we will respond to subject access requests within 1 month, as required under data protection legislation. However, we are able to extend this period by up to 2 months for complex requests or exceptional circumstances.

Your other rights regarding your data

You may:

- Withdraw your consent to processing at any time (this only relates to data for which the school relies on consent as a lawful basis for processing)
- Ask us to rectify, erase or restrict processing of your personal data, or object to the processing of it in certain circumstances and where sufficient supporting evidence is supplied
- Prevent the use of your personal data for direct marketing
- Challenge processing which has been justified on the basis of public interest, official authority or legitimate interests
- Request a copy of agreements under which your personal data is transferred outside of the European Economic Area
- Object to decisions based solely on automated decision making or profiling (decisions taken with no human involvement, that might negatively affect you)
- Request a cessation of any processing that is likely to cause damage or distress
- Be notified of a data breach in certain circumstances
- Refer a complaint to the ICO
- Ask for your personal data to be transferred to a third party in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format (in certain circumstances)

If you would like to exercise any of the rights or requests listed above, please contact the school's Data Protection Lead (see "contact us" below).

The School will comply with the Data Protection legislation in regard to dealing with all data requests submitted in any format, although individuals are asked to preferably submit their request in written format to assist with comprehension.

We reserve the right to verify the requester’s identity by asking for photo ID. If this proves insufficient then further ID may be required.

10. Data Protection Breaches

If you suspect that yours or someone else’s data has been subject to unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction, or damage, we ask that you please contact the DPO or the school Data Protection Lead and advise us without undue delay.

11. Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously. If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please contact our data protection officer, David Coy (contactable on david.coy@london.anglican.org, 07903 506531).

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner’s Office:
